

Empire Online

Empire Online is an electronic archive of primary source material related to colonial history and culture. The database is divided into five sections with more than 60,000 fully searchable resources. Arranged thematically, the collection covers topics such as literature, art, religion, race, and class, as well as imperialism and colonialism in the colonized and colonizing countries from 1600 to the late 20th century.

Database

Cost: $21,500
