International Bibliography of Periodical Literature in the Humanities and Social Sciences (IBZ)

The online database of the International Bibliography of Periodical Literature in the Humanities and Social Sciences (IBZ) is an index of primarily European journals that cover all aspects of the humanities and social sciences. The IBZ offers an interdisciplinary approach and its format is multilingual and multicultural, reflecting the latest research in Europe. Compared to many American periodical databases, the IBZ provides much greater access to European research and a world of scholarship that is often overlooked in American university and research libraries.
