Biographical Note

Shanti Khinduka's primary professional interests are social work education and international social development. He has written extensively on social work education, international social work, and ethnic diversity. He served as dean of the George Warren Brown School of Social Work for 30 years.

He has provided leadership for social work education and the profession. For the Council on Social Work Education (CSWE), he has served on its Board of Directors, Commission on Accreditation, Commission on Educational Policy, and National Nominating Committee. He also chaired the Accreditation Committee of the National Association of Deans and Directors of Schools of Social Work and its Task Force on the Future of Social Work Education. For the National Association of Social Workers, he has chaired the Publications Committee and its Symposium Planning Committee and Executive Director Search Committee, and served as President of the Inter-University Consortium for International Social Development.

Dr. Khinduka was the recipient of the 1996 President's Award for Excellence in Education from the National Association of Social Workers and the Los Amigos de la Humanidad Distinguished Educator Award in 1998 from the School of Social Work at the University of Southern California. He is co-chair of the Board of Directors of MERS/Goodwill and a member of the Board of Directors of United Way of Greater St. Louis.

(Taken from the George Warren Brown School of Social Work profile of Shanti Khinduka.)
