Historical Note

Arts & Sciences consists of three academic units: The College, The Graduate School, and University College. These units are served and governed by an administrative office called "The Faculty of Arts & Sciences." The present organization dates from circa 1965, when the faculties of the Graduate School and the (undergraduate) College coalesced into a single department: the Faculty of Arts & Sciences. (per department website, October 2009)

Scope and Content Notes

The Faculty of Arts & Sciences Collection includes publications produced for the benefit of Arts & Sciences faculty. The majority of the publications are faculty newsletters and programs and invitations for installation ceremonies for the endowed professorships.

Arrangement

Publications are arranged alphabetically by title.
